Dear Mr De Jong

Results of Compliance Inspection

The GLA would like to confirm that following your recent compliance inspection, no non-compliances were found.

Please note that it is a requirement of the licence that you and your organisation continue to comply with the GLA's licensing conditions, the applicable licensing standards and continue to be classed as "fit and proper" to hold a licence.

It is now an offence for labour users to use un-licensed labour providers. To help your labour users to find your organisation on the public register, they should use your licence URN as the search reference. Using the URN is the only way to ensure your own record is displayed. The public register can be found on the GLA website at www.gla.gov.uk

The GLA would like to stress that you do not have permission to use our logo. If you have any questions about this or have seen your competitors using the logo please contact us to discuss this.

If you have any queries please contact the GLA via email, telephone or our website, the details of which are above.

Yours sincerely

GLA Licensing Team
On behalf of the Gangmasters Licensing Authority
